

PRESS RELEASE

Cambridge Management Services, Inc. has announced its entry into the tax compliance advisory realm as an addition to their third-party management service. The compliance advisory services will consist of pre-approvals, state audit assistance, compliance advice, site inspections, per file monitoring, training, and file reviews.

Ms. Jay Tillman, NCP-e, HCCP, was appointed Director of Compliance Services and was most recently a National Compliance Trainer in 24 states with responsibility for regulatory compliance workshops, establishing policy and procedures, education development, and audits for the Riverstone Residential Group.

Ms. Cindy Criner, Asset Manager, CAM, C3P, HCM-H, Ms. Criner was previously the HUD Director for Consolidated American Service (CAS) Residential and oversaw 6,000 units in 36 states nationwide. She has twenty years experience in property management operations and compliance.

Ms. Selenia Gutierrez, Compliance Specialist, a nationally recognized SACS and Housing Credit Certified Professional (HCCP) she performs the file review, screens and process all applicants, report requirements, and audits in accordance with the IRS Section 42 regulations and Section 8 in NY and FL.